

Barbara T. Bauer

Barbara is an internationally recognized executive who has successfully led small start-up companies and large international organizations. She is now the Executive Director of Boardbound by the Women's Leadership Foundation. Prior leadership roles include Director of the Women's Investor Network, Rockies Venture Club, Executive Office, Myanmar, for the Partnership for Change (PfC) Foundation, and Princeton in Asia Senior Fellow, She has also started two boutique businesses: GlobalSight Partners, an international management consulting organization, and Silk and Stones Travel, a boutique travel company specializing in custom designed trips to Southeast Asia. Barbara also developed and led the innovative ABLE Center for Women Entrepreneurs at the University of Denver. During her career she held executive positions at Sun Microsystems, StorageTek, US West, Raynet, and Bell Laboratories. Her academic credentials include a B.S. and M.S. in Physics, and the Stanford Summer Executive Program.

Contact: Barbara T. Bauer
Barbara@womensleadershipfoundation.org